

Chincoteague Minnow, pony on left, with his owner Kyley Hellhake of Downingtown, who is displaying Minnow's work of art, "Black Mist," was invited to perform at the 83rd annual Pony Penny Week at Chincoteague Island, Va. Minnow debuted in two shows by painting a work of art that would be auctioned during the show, and he then performed a variety of tricks. All proceeds were donated to the Chincoteague Pony Association to help feed and care for the wild ponies of Assateague Island. Minnow was taught to paint in January 2007. His paintings are on display at Studio 3, Park Lane, Downingtown. Also pictured is Kendy Allen with her pony Black Mist. Allen is the owner of Pony Centre in Chincoteague. Visit www.ponypaintings.com.